

Clinical Benefit – “Feels, Functions or Survives”

---

- Clinical Benefit often is interpreted as something that improves the way a patient:
  - Feels
  - Functions
  - Survives
- A trial’s primary endpoint needs to assess if a therapy improves how a patient “feels, functions or survives”